

Please do not allow Financial Institutions or other businesses etc. to try to establish a business relationship. If I want to use them I will call them. I don't think they would call me before I bounced a check and that would be the only type of call I would want. I like not receiving the phone calls from telemarketers or anyone else. Thank you, Michael Roll